

FINAL PROGRAM FOR THE MEETING OF THE THIRD NEUROSURGICAL SOCIETY, CINCINNATI, OHIO
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28TH AND 29TH, 1938

NOTES:

The Hotel Netherland Plaza will be headquarters for the group.

The program is a full one. The chairmen will accordingly be strict in limiting the speakers to their allotted time. Discussions will be limited at the discretion of the chairmen.
Meetings will be called to order at the indicated times.

Discussion by the invited guests will be welcomed.

Special equipment required by any of the speakers should be specified in advance.

Friday, October 28th: Meetings at Good Samaritan Hospital
Frank Mayfield, Chairman

10:00 A.M.: Symposium on Low Back Pain

Anatomical Considerations: Francis Murphy
X-ray Findings: Justin McCarthy
Neurological Considerations: Howard Pabing
Some Orthopedic Aspects of Low Back Pain: Joseph Froberg
The Economic Side of Low Back Pain as Viewed by the Industrial Commission of Ohio: Sidney McCurdy
Neurosurgical Considerations: Frank Mayfield

Discussion

12:30 P.M.: Luncheon at the Good Samaritan Hospital

1:45 P.M.: Papers

Pitfalls in Brain Tumor Diagnosis: Howard McIntyre Problems in the Treatment of the Late Effects of Head Injury: John Raaf
Bilateral Acoustic Neuroma: Dean Echols
Circular Craniotomy: William Keith
The Surgical Management of Hypertension: Spencer Braden

3:30 P.M.: Business Meeting
Dean Echols, Chairman

7:00 P.M.: Dinner for members, guests, and ladies at Hamilton County Country Club. (Formal dress. Transportation will be provided, leaving the Netherland Plaza at 6:30.)

Saturday, October 29th: Meetings at Cincinnati General Hospital
Joseph Evans, Chairman

9:00 A.M.: Demonstration of Neuropathological Material. Neuropathology Laboratory (Basement of H Pavilion): Charles Aring and Joseph Evans

10:00 A.M.: Demonstration of New Visual Field Room (Basement of H Pavilion)

Paper: An Engineer Looks at the Visual Field Problem:
W. E. Stillwell, Jr.

10:30 A.M.: Papers (Obstetrical Amphitheater)

Optic Arachnoiditis: Derrick Vail
The Treatment of Neck Injuries: John Caldwell
Some Remarks on the Surgery of the Sympathetic
Nervous System: Louis Herrmann
Experimental Studies on Cerebral Vascular
Occlusion: Joseph Evans

1:00 P.M.: Luncheon - Children's Hospital

2:00 P.M.: Papers (Obstetrical Amphitheater)

Symposium on Meningitis Secondary to Disease of the Middle Ear and of the Nasal Sinuses

Introductory Remarks: Samuel Iglauer
Neurological Considerations and the Diagnostic Value of the Cerebrospinal Fluid: Charles Aring Bacteriological and Serological Considerations:
James Ruogsogger

Two Otologists Discuss the Indications for Surgery:
Edward King and Henry Goodyear

The Problem as Seen by the Pediatrician: Frank Stevenson

Discussion

4:00 P.M.: Business Meeting
Dean Echols, Chairman

6:30 P.M.: Society Dinner for Members and Guests
Dean Echols, Master of Ceremonies
The University Club (401 East Fourth Street - 5 squares east and 1 south of the Netherland Plaza Hotel)
Informal dress

Luncheon is planned for the ladies on Friday at the Cliff View House, North Bend, at one o'clock. The group will leave the Netherland Plaza at twelve o'clock.

Mrs. Mayfield will entertain the ladies at eleven o'clock breakfast Saturday morning at her home, 4082 Rose Hill, Avondale.

Saturday evening Mrs. Evans will entertain the ladies at dinner, at six forty-five, at her home, 3433 Berry Avenue, Hyde Park.