

Bronson Sands Ray
Chief
Division of Neurosurgery
1948-1971

- College: Franklin
- Medical School: Northwestern University
- Residency (Neurosurgery): Peter Bent Brigham
- Residency (surgery): The New York Hospital

1940's: Ray performed 2500 sympathectomies for hypertension

1950's: Ray performed 1500 transfrontal pituitary operation

- Society of Neurological Surgery: President
- American Association of Neurological Surgeons: Cushing Medal
- World Federation of Neurological Surgeons: Medal of Honor

Columbia's J. Lawrence Pool

J. Lawrence Pool
Chairman
Department of Neurosurgery
The Neurological Institute
1949-1972

- College: Harvard
- Medical School: Columbia
- Internship: Cornell (medicine)
- Residencies : Columbia
(surgery, neurology, neurosurgery)
- Research: Harvard

Pool was affectionately called “Big Daddy” by his

Mount Sinai's Leonard I. Malis

Lenny brought many “firsts” to the credit of The

Leonard I. Malis
Chairman

Department of Neurosurgery
The Mount Sinai Hospital
1970- 1993

- College: University of Virginia
- Medical school: University of Virginia
- Residencies: The Mount Sinai Hospital
(neurology, neurosurgery)
- Fellowship: Yale (neurophysiology)

Lenny always arrived at the annual summer picnic on his cigarette boat “The Gander”.

Their Retirements